

Llantrisant & Pontyclun Golf Club

Code of Conduct for Juniors/Young Golfers

As a junior golfer taking part in a Llantrisant & Pontyclun Golf Club activity, you should:

- Help create and maintain an environment free of fear, discrimination and harassment.
- Demonstrate fair play, self-control and good standards both on and off the course.
- Obey the Rules of Golf with honesty and respect for the golf course and other players.
- Follow the instructions and restrictions requested by the coaches and adults looking after you, treat them with courtesy and value their advice.
- Respect other people and their differences, treating them how you would wish to be treated.
- Be organised and on time.
- Tell someone in authority if you are leaving the venue or competition.
- Accept that these guidelines are in place for the well-being and safety of all concerned.
- Look out for yourself and for the welfare of others.
- Speak to your parents or a club representative if you consider that you or others have been wrongly treated.
- Let the Club Welfare Officer know if you need any additional support or protection.

You should not take part in any irresponsible, abusive, inappropriate or illegal behaviour which includes:

- Smoking or vaping
- Using foul language
- Using critical or disrespectful descriptions of others either in person or through text, email or social network sites
- Consuming alcohol, illegal drugs or stimulants

Child Signature _____ Print Name _____

Parent Signature _____ Print Name _____

We expect all junior members to follow this code. Any disobedience resulting in misconduct will be dealt with by the Club Welfare Officer or Junior Club Committee and a verbal or written warning may be given. Serious offences or further concerns and misbehaviour may result in you being asked not to attend especially if is considered harmful to the welfare of other children and young people. It may even result in you being asked to leave the session, event or club, something we would never wish to do as we want all our members to enjoy their time in the club.